

Electronic Records and Digital Archivists: A Landscape Review

Jane Zhang

Catholic University of America

Digital Preservation 2014

Washington DC, July 23, 2014

Digital Archivists

- February 7, 2009
 - Conrad de Aenlle, New York Times
 - Digital Archivists, Now in Demand
- June 5, 2014
 - Jackie Dooley, hangingtogether.org
 - What was once a trickle of digital archivist positions, most of them vaguely defined, has gradually grown to something closer to a flood.

Electronic Records and Digital Archivists

- Digital archivists at corporate settings
 - Not included in the study
- Electronic records and digital archivists at archives, special collections, historical societies, or museum archives settings
 - 100 job postings since 2000
 - 83 positions since 2001

Job Postings (100)

- State coverage
 - 29 out of 50 states

- Year coverage

Positions (83)

- State coverage
 - 32 out of 50 states

- Start date (66 out of 83)
- End date (23 out of 66)

Positions (83)

- Professional degree information available
 - 53 out of 83
- Graduation Date

Conclusion

- Expanding
 - 92% new positions posted after 2011
 - 73% new positions started after 2010
- Young
 - 96% positions filled by post-2000 graduates
 - 73% positions filled by post-2006 graduates
 - 26% positions filled by post-2010 graduates
- Fluid
 - 35% positions with end dates

Thank You

Jane Zhang @ Catholic University of America
zhangj@cua.edu