

Pass It On:

Personal Archiving Day at The Library of Congress

Date: Monday, May 10, 2010

Time: 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Venue: 6th floor, Mumford Room

Library of Congress, James Madison Building
101 Independence Ave., SE Washington, DC

Memories should last a lifetime and be passed on to future generations. At this event, Library staff will provide guidelines and tips on how to safeguard precious digital and traditional photos, documents, recordings, e-mail, home movies, and more through a series of informal talks.

Schedule of Informal Talks:

11:00 am: Film/Video

12:00 pm: Photos

1:00 pm: Sound Recordings

2:00 pm: Personal Documents

Library staff will also be on hand to answer preservation-related questions at informational booths for each type of material.

For security reasons, visitors are asked not to bring their collection materials to the Library; no appraisals will be provided.

For more information, please visit:

<http://www.digitalpreservation.gov/news/events/presweek2010/>

Personal Archiving Day celebrates the first national Preservation Week (May 9-15) It is sponsored by the Library of Congress, the American Library Association, the Institute for Museum and Library Services and partner organizations.

Request ADA accommodations five days in advance at (202) 707-6363 or ADA@loc.gov